Capture Venice and Overrun Northern Italy.

Some High Positions Have Been Taken by Invaders.

So Far Italian Line Holds Firm Against Assault.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Austria-Hungary, with whom the United States is on the eve of a declaration of war, is taking the lead in a new attempt to break through the Italian front, compel the retreat of the Italian army from the mountains, capture Venice and permit the Austro-German invaders to swarm over a wide extent of the Italian plains.

The Teutons have turned further westward to the Trentino region, northwest of Asiago, and today are reported to be beginning an attack on the Sette Comuni plateau.

A break in the Italian lines at the point of the present attack would flank not only the Piave line but render the line of the Brenta impossible to hold.

Austro-Germans have already captured some hill positions on the mountainous front in northern Italy.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President Wilson's message calling for war against Austria-Hungary and enunciating America's purpose to defeat German power as it is now constituted, is printed most prominently by London newspapers. In their comment the papers receive the address kindly.

GAINS ARE HELD BY THE BRITISH

After four days of effort which brought them but little gains at a great cost in casualties the Germans have not renewed their efforts in the Cambrai sector. The British salient there, however, is still a menace to the German lines north and south of Cambrai and the German artillery bombardment is probably but the prelude to further desperate efforts to wipe out the gains made.

The determined purpose may have been made to break through the Somme region as well as to blot out the Cambrai salient is indicated in dispatches from the front.

Eighty passengers and the crew of the British steamer Apapa were lost when the vessel was torpedoed and sank by a German submarine.

LORD LANSDOWNE PLEA ASTONISHES ENGLAND

LORD LANSDOWNE.

All of England has been strongly aroused by the astonishing plea of the Marquis of Lansdowne for a revision of the Allies' war aims and an attempt to secure peace before "the prolongation of the war leads to the ruin of the civilized world." Lord Lansdowne's letter came as a distinct surprise and shock. He was a member of Premier Asquith's coalition cabinet and had never been suspected of harboring pacifist tendencies.

PREPARING FOR DECLARATION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 5.—Congress took up the work of declaring war on Austria today with the expectation of having the formal war resolution passed by Friday.

The Senate was not in session, but its Foreign Relations Committee, which will handle the resolution was in conference.

In the House the war resolution was brought out by Chairman Flood, of the Foreign Affairs Committee. The committee itself had been called to meet this afternoon to formally act upon the resolution and return it to the House for passage.

The sentiment for recognizing Turkey and Bulgaria in the list of recognized enemies persisted today and there was promise of some attempt to amend the resolution.

The committees of both houses will be guided by the State Department in the language of the resolution and if the administration has its way, as it probably will, Turkey and Bulgaria will be left for the time when they come directly in the path of America's action against Germany, as the President expressed it in his address of yesterday.

While Congress is working on the declaration of war the executive department of the government are setting in motion the machinery which will make the declaration effective. The Department of Justice began taking steps for disposition of the great number of new alien enemies the war declaration will create.

There are in the United States many subjects of Austria-Hungary who are opposed to that government and sympathize with the cause of the United States.

An increase of rates, a government loan of money and suspension of anti-trust and anti-pooling laws for the duration of the war were recommended by the commission as an alternative.

NEW SUGGESTION FOR R. R. PROBLEM

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 5. — Congress was told in a report by the Inter-State Commerce Commission today that to effect the unification of railroad resources for the war, anti-trust and anti-pooling laws should be suspended.

In addition the commission declared railroads should receive a government loan and that issue of railroad securities should be vested in some special body.

WAR RESOLUTION IS INTRODUCED

GIGANTIC SUM ASKED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 5.—Congress was informed by Secretary McAdoo in his annual report submitted today that $5,128,203,793 must be provided in addition to funds from taxes and bond issues already authorized in order to make estimated receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918 equal disbursements. If this deficit is met by a new issue of bonds, the total amount of securities to be issued in the next seven months is estimated at $9,969,433,850.

For the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, the estimated excess of disbursements over receipts is $7,627,973,980.

Huge war expenses, and loans to America's allies at the rate of a half billion dollars a month have made these estimates many times larger than any ever presented by a Secretary of the Treasury's annual report. Of the $12,316,000,000 estimated ordinary expenditures for the year ending next June 30, $11,527,000,000 is for war purposes, and the proportion is about the same for the fiscal year ending in 1919.

So far the nation has borne the financial burdens of the war well, says Secretary McAdoo, owing to healthy business conditions, and the valuable aid of the established Federal Reserve System. In the future, however, increasingly greater habits of economy must be developed by individuals and business institutions, the Secretary declares, and "business as usual" cannot be adopted as the guiding principle of the war. People must save and invest in government securities to avoid postponing victory.

With this admission, Mr. McAdoo proceeds to cite the enormous figures of government receipts and expenditures which are the fruit of war times.

Total estimated receipts for the current fiscal year are $12,580,732,800, which, with a balance in the treasury last June 30 of $1,066,983,361, makes a total of $13,647,716,161. Most of the receipts, or $8,686,000,000, are from sale of bonds and war savings certificates; ordinary receipts are $3,886,000,000, largely from war taxes; and the Panama Canal income is $7,000,000.

Ordinary disbursements are estimated at $12,316,295,223; loans to allies in the year at $6,115,000,000; public debt disbursements at $321,000,000; and Panama Canal expenses, $23,593,000; making total estimated disbursements $18,775,919,955.

In order to allow for a balance in the general fund of about $500,000,000 next June 30, Congress must authorize raising of about $5,640,000,000 additional funds. This figure, together with the $3,666,000,000 of authorized but unissued Liberty Bonds, and $663,000,000 estimated receipts from war savings, make the $9,969,000,000 which Mr. McAdoo believes Americans must loan the government between now and June 30, 1918.

For the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, the Secretary estimated receipts at $5,176,000,000, and disbursements at $12,894,034,440, exclusive of allied loans. This makes a $7,627,000,000 excess of disbursements. If the present rate of loans to allies is continued in the 1918-19 fiscal year, $6,000,000,000 additional would be required. Estimated interest on bonds to be issued that year is $385,000,000, and estimated expense of floating the bond issues $28,000,000.

Thus if the deficit is to be met by bonds, $14,040,000,000 worth must be floated between July 1, 1918 and June 30, 1919, in addition to receipts from war savings.

Chairman Flood of the Foreign Relations Committee introduces Measure in House.

Final Action May Not be Taken Until Next Week.

Official Text of Momentous Resolution.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 5. — Postponement of the Austrian war declaration by Congress until next week appeared probable today after conferences between chairmen of the Senate and House foreign committees.

The resolution for war was introduced today in the House by Chairman Flood of the Foreign Affairs Committee.

The official text of the resolution follows:

"Whereas, the Imperial and Royal Austro-Hungarian government has shown its hostility to the government and people of the United States by severing diplomatic relations and has formally agreed to the ruthless policy of submarine warfare adopted by the Imperial German government with which the United States is at war, and has given to its ally every support and aid in the prosecution of war against the United States, therefore, be it

SAVINGS STAMPS ARE NOW ON SALE AT POSTOFFICES

War savings stamps, meant for the small investors, and "good as gold" are now on sale at every postoffice in Fayette county, and the demand for them already growing rapidly.

The sale of war saving certificates in small denominations, for which $2,000,000,000 were authorized by congress, has begun. These applications will be dated January 2, 1918, and will mature January 1, 1923. These certificates contain space for 20 savings stamps, which cost the buyer $4.12 apiece. If the buyer ultimately purchases 20 of these stamps his certificate will become redeemable January 1, 1923, at $100.

The war savings stamps are in denominations of $5 and the thrift stamps 25 cents.

If a purchaser buys 20 stamps with a face value of $5 each January 1, 1923 for which he pays the sum of $82.40 his purchase will appreciate in the amount of $17.60 by reason of the government's plan to pay four per cent compound interest.

If anyone should take advantage of the $1000 maximum deposit his cash payment therefore would amount to $824, and the difference, $176, would be the result of compound interest on his deposit.

It is pointed out that most every resident of Washington C. H. is at least able to start an account with the local post office, for the government has made arrangements for those in the most humble circumstances by issuing what is known as thrift stamps which may be purchased for 25c each. After the depositor has completed the purchase of 16 such stamps, for which he has paid $4, he may request the post office to issue him a war saving certificate therefor, receiving a certificate with a war savings stamp attached with a face value of $5 in January 1923. Any postmaster will explain all details.

In a statement issued Saturday night at Washington, Secretary McAdoo said: "This war cannot be financed unless the American people immediately stop waste, practice self-denial, economize in every possible direction and lend the money they save thereby to the government. I appeal to the heart and patriotism of the American people to help their government and help themselves by a wholehearted support of this war savings plan."

A CORRECTION

In the advertisement of J. W. Duffee & Co., yesterday, the price of Duffee's Cough Syrup was quoted at 25c per bottle. It should have been 35c per bottle.

CANCELED STAMPS ARE WITHOUT VALUE SAYS GOVERNMENT

Cancelled United States postage stamps are worthless unless some stamp collector wishes to pay a few cents per thousand for them, and no such market is known.

Sometime ago announcement was made by someone somewhere that cancelled two-cent stamps were valuable, and that the coloring matter used in the stamps was so valuable that it could be extracted and sold.

School children all over the country were eager to help collect the stamps when it was announced that a given number of the stamps would support a Belgian child for a year. The work of collecting the stamps reached this and adjoining cities, and thousands of stamps were obtained.

It is believed that German propaganda was behind the widespread movement which was taken seriously by so many.

Desiring to get at the facts in the case, The Herald communicated with the Public Printer at Washington D. C., and the accompanying letters tell their own story:

DALE On The Alley

Social and Personal

The Browning Club met in regular session Tuesday night. Mrs. Martha Clark, president, conducting the opening business session and reading a paper sent in by the food commissioner in connection with the food conservation program.

Mrs. Jesse Persinger handed in her resignation as secretary; the office will be filled by the Board.

"Our Food Supply and the Present War" was the subject of a splendidly prepared paper by Miss Gertrude Campbell. The writer not only covered the salient points of the United States food supply in the present war, but gave generous enlightenment concerning food conditions in other countries.

Mrs. Loyce Sever presented the second paper on "Eight Hour Day in Housekeeping." It was exceedingly bright and interesting, unfolding up-to-date suggestions by means of which women may systemize and curtail the hours of house keeping duties.

Mrs. Sever spiced original ideas of her own with those of well known authorities.

The Browning women were not at all in sympathy with Dr. Wiley's idea that work in connection with children is in reality pure recreation and one woman spoke up briskly to say that it was no wonder Mrs. Wiley was one of the pickets with the militant branch of suffragettes at the White House and that she even might find time for a few days in jail if she followed her husband's suggestions.

Home economics presents a subject that offers special appeal to women and the discussion which followed was unusually lively.

Mrs. Elmer Junk, who was a visitor at the State Library a few days ago, paid the club a nice compliment from the State Librarian, who pronounced the Browning women unusually up to date and said that, judging from their programs they were taking up subjects that have so far only been handled in magazines, although books on the same subjects are now in the publishers' hands.

Miss Marion Christopher delighted the club with a beautiful piano solo.

The Sunday School Board of the First Baptist Church held their regular monthly business meeting at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Hicks, Tuesday night at six o'clock a delicious three course supper was served to the twenty-four guests present. Assisting Mrs. Hicks were Mrs. Howard McLean and Mrs. C. Vincent.

Before the transaction of business, the pastor Rev. G. L. Hart stepped forward and in behalf of the officers, and teachers presented Mr. Hicks with a beautiful electric reading lamp.

Mr. Hart spoke as follows:

"Dear Superintendent:—We your friends and fellowworkers not only admire but love you. We have long wished to show our appreciation of your ability as leader, your devotion, kindness, patience, zeal, and your splendid personality and fine spirit.

"We know your task is heavy, your burdens many, and difficult problems in which you are seeking light. Will you accept as a slight token of our love and esteem this lamp?

"May its radiance fill your heart and home with the good will and cheer we feel for you. God said, 'Let there be light, and there was light at once time.'

"Mr. Hicks was deeply and visibly affected. But finally found words to express his gratitude, and then turned to conduct the business meeting in which he is so well fitted.

Although the Cecilian program of Tuesday's meeting was considerably curtailed, the session was one of much interest.

Mrs. D. S. Craig, always a delightful writer, presented a paper on "The Community Singing." It was especially apropos as next Sunday is appointed a "Community Singing Day" throughout the country and a special ally for the community sing will be made in this city.

The government has issued song books for the cantonments, books that are made up of familiar popular airs, patriotic songs and hymns, and Sunday will witness the first concerted action towards the establishing of Camp Community Singing.

Miss Minnie Light followed up the subject in an interesting way and also discussed current events.

Mrs. Margaret McC. Stitt gave a musical reading based on a little Christmas poem, and set to music of her own composition. It was a pretty and taking number.

Mrs. Elva H. Kelley played a difficult piano solo — "Arabesques" — Scholz-Evler weaving in entrancing harmony the melodies of "The Blue Danube" waltzes, with great brilliancy and entirely from memory.

The President, Miss Edith Gardner called attention to the genuine treat in store for music lovers in the Gaiety's Lecture-Song-Recital to be given in the Cecilian Concert Recital Friday night at the High School Auditorium.

The New York Sun says: "Mrs. Gaiety at Mendelssohn Hall, sang several groups of songs with admirable tone and finish. Interpretation is a sealed book to the average singer, but not to this artist, who warms everything into life significance through the power of sympathy and personality."

Mrs. Gaiety will sing the songs used by her famous husband in his Lecture-Song-Recital.

Jeffersonville chain of Red Cross teas was most successfully launched at the beautiful home of Mrs. Emma James, Tuesday afternoon. Entertaining with Mrs. James were Mrs. T. A. James and Mrs. F. C. Morrow.

Yellow chrysanthemums were used in decoration and delicious chicken sandwiches, brown bread sandwiches and marguerites were served with the tea.

Twenty-eight women attended and the tea made $9.50 for the Red Cross treasury.

Miss Madama Larrimer granddaughter, of Mrs. Sarah Larrimer, and Mr. George Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Haines, of the Circleville pike were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington at Grace parsonage.

The attendants were: Miss Marie Cook and Mr. Albert Schmidt, the bride's aunts, Misses Lulu and Ivah Larrimer, and the groom's sisters Mrs. Harry Backenstoe and Mrs. Harry Coventry also witnessed the ceremony.

The bride, a girl of many admirable qualities, possesses a sweet contralto voice and has often given pleasure in its generous use. She never looked prettier than in her becoming suit of plumb colored serge with taupe hat, blouse, shoes and gloves en suite.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home to their many friends, with the groom's parents, as the groom is associated with his father in farming.

Mrs. Ralph Penn gave a charming Red Cross Tea, Tuesday afternoon.

The Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Grace Church met Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Mart Morris had the program in charge. Following the study, "Methodism in Africa," Mrs. Wheeler Bay read a fine paper on the, "White Man in Africa."

Mrs. Jack Boyd contributed a beautiful vocal solo to the program.

A delightful social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. James Miles Hall and daughter Alice Marie, of East Springfield, Pa., are the guests of Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ford until after the holidays.

Miss Iris Coil of Milledgeville is the guest of Miss Martha Nelson this week.

The President's Message

President Wilson's message to Congress sets forth in clear, emphatic but temperate terms the intention not only of the United States but of the allied nations as well, in prosecuting the war against German militarism.

Again it is made clear to the world—to all the doubting Thomases, if any there be in this or any other land, to the unreasoning and dangerous pacifists and to the disloyal, that this nation has no selfish purpose and that the sum total of gain demanded after the war is brought to a successful end will be just reparation by the people of Germany for the damage wrought by the present rulers.

No people are to be deprived of any territory that belongs to them—no nations are to be broken up. The note of humanity, of brotherly love, the recognition of the rights and privileges of other nations and other people is clearly recognized, despite the emphatic declaration that there will be no peace until Germany disposes of her present masters and chooses leaders whose word the world may accept.

The recommendation that the existence of a state of war with Austria Hungary be immediately declared by Congress, came as a surprise only to those people who, for some unaccountable reason, had conceived the idea that President Wilson did not favor such a course at this time.

While Austria, it is true, is only a vassal of Germany, that fact does not dispense with the necessity of placing that nation where it properly belongs.

It is inconceivable that Austrian representatives should be allowed to go and come freely in the diplomatic circles and be a part of the business and commercial life of America when their first duty is to Germany.

There can be no longer any room for honest doubt, and no ground for captious or dishonest contention as to the attitude of the democratic nations of the world.

It is a great message to humanity from a great advocate of peace and a believer in the rights of humanity and nations.

Concerning Our Food

The almost universal compliance with which the people have met every request of the food conservation authorities is one of the very gratifying results of the war work.

The nation had need to conserve its supply of food stuffs not only that we might not be short before the next harvest time came around, ourselves but that we might, out of our abundance, care for our allies across the sea.

There were, perhaps, no people on earth who were less accustomed to economize, especially in food stuffs than we people of America. Living in a land of plenty for generations and generations we have never yet known the fear of famine or even serious food shortage. The year just now drawing to a close has given us the greatest crops in all our history and yet, the people have listened to the requests to conserve and they have complied.

There are few homes, hotels or restaurants in all this broad land that are not being operated under food conservation regulations.

When we consider this universal compliance with the food administrator's request (it is a request and not an imperial decree to be enforced with a gun) it furnishes one of the many irrefutable proofs of American patriotism.

It is a substantial bit of loyalty.

The Non-Essentials

The government in the work of conserving fuel, labor and material of all kinds has begun taking a census of all the industrial activities. Every business which uses fuel or power from any source or employs labor or consumes material of any kind is to be listed and classified by the national authorities with a view to determining what are essential activities and what are non-essential to the welfare of the nation under present conditions.

When the order finally comes cutting off the non-essential activities from the lists of concerns which are to be promptly supplied and kept going, there are certain to be many objections.

As a matter of course every man in business of any kind, thinks his business is essential and it is—to him.

Eliminating the non-essential activities is certain to work a hardship, for a time, upon the individuals concerned but, it will be but a short time until the energy displaced will find opportunity in other lines.

The great advantage which will follow the elimination of non-essential activity is apparent. It will result in a saving of fuel, reducing the traffic on the already overburdened common carriers and it will render an increased amount of energy available for necessary tasks of the time.

Doubtless there will be, in isolated instances, some hardship upon individuals, but in times like these we must sacrifice our individual preferences for the collective good.

Poetry For Today

SWEATHEART OF LIFE

The shadows come to a sky of blue
 And the stars won't hold a light for you;
 And you wait in vain for the Night to say:
 "Only a step to the House of Day!"
 For Day left sad on the sundown-track,
 With never a message that he'd come back!
 Yet ever the Night knows the Dark is in flight—
 Sweatheart of Light!

Though shadows deepen and sweet stars die,
 With ghost-clouds haunting the lone-some sky,
 Out of the shadows a song, in a sigh:
 "Light waits bright at a Morning door
 Where parted lovers meet once more;
 And the stars, withdrawn from mortal sight,
 Lead the love-angels through the night—
 Sweatheart of Light!

WILL INTEREST OHIO CHILDREN IN FOOD SAVING

By Associated Press Dispatch.
 Columbus, Ohio Dec. 5.—The Ohio Food Administration is planning a campaign among the school children of the state in order to familiarize them with the necessity for food conservation. Fred C. Croxton, Ohio's food administrator, believes that by interesting the school children, the importance of food conservation will be brought home to the families as in no other way.

Figures from several states show that the food saving in the homes and in the retail trade is less than one-half that now being accomplished by hotels and restaurants. This means that the homes have got to wake up and do their share, and Croxton believes that the children will perform an important service in this respect.

The first step in the educational campaign will be a state-wide poster contest. The subject of the poster will be the saving of food and it is planned that all the children in all the schools of Ohio will be working on it at the same time. The contest will close December 17th. The posters will then be judged locally and the winners will be sent to the State House to be judged by Frank Duveneck, of Cincinnati; Henry Turner Bailey, director of the Cleveland Art School; and William Dallas Campbell, of Columbus, for years one of the leading spirits of the Ohio Art Teachers organization. The winning poster will be sent to Herbert Hoover, United States food administrator at Washington.

No prizes will be offered as it is thought that patriotism should be a sufficient stimulus. The posters will be divided into two classes—for city schools and for country schools. Each city will submit one poster for each 25,000 or fraction of its population, and each county will submit three posters.

The best posters will be sent about the state by the food administration. The competition will be in charge of a central poster committee, under the chairmanship of Prof. Charles F. Kelley, head of the Art Department at Ohio State University. The local food administration committees will foster the movement in their respective localities.

EFFORT TO STOP ELOPERS OF OHIO

A Cincinnati dispatch says that if plans now on foot materialize at the next session of the Kentucky Legislature, the day of secret and wholesale marriages in the northern Kentucky cities will be a thing of the past.

Legislation is proposed by which every person who seeks a marriage license must give 10 days' notice. Before the license can be issued the application must be given publicity in newspapers of general publication.

It is the intention to revise entirely the marriage laws of the state so that the evil of secret marriages can be removed.

For years Newport and Covington have been Gretna Greens where marriage touts flourished and secret marriages easily could be arranged. Should the proposed legislation be enacted, it would be virtually impossible to be married secretly.

FORMER FAYETTE BOY, IN MARINES, READY FOR FRANCE

written by Raymond Pinkerton, son of Robert W. Pinkerton, now of Mid-dletown, formerly located in this county. Raymond is with the United States Marines stationed at Quantoco, Va., and all of his Regiment, with the exception of one battalion of which he is a member, is in France. The letter follows:

Quantoco, Virginia.
Nov. 28, 1917.

Dear Aunt and Uncle:—

I received your most welcome letter this morning and the box last night. The mail has been very heavy here the last few days. They had to put on some new men at the post-office. We have our own postoffice, so none of the mail sent to the marines goes to the postoffice down town. I was surely glad to get that box; it will be a change from what I have been getting. I do not know what we are going to get for dinner tomorrow, but I suppose it will be a good one. Most of us are going to Washington, D. C., or Fredericksburg for Thanksgiving. I had an invitation for Thanksgiving dinner from Mr. and Mrs. Dove, but it came to late for me to get leave, so I will have to spend Thanksgiving here.

We had our first snow last evening. There was about two inches of it on the ground this morning. On account of the snow we stayed inside and learned how to handle a machine gun. Everyone of us must learn to do this. There are eight of the guns to the company, two to the platoon. Regular army men are the instructors. We must learn how to operate them, because something might happen to the instructors.

Last Saturday our platoon went to Washington, D. C., at the Marines-Camp Lee football game and put on an exhibition drill. The spectators liked it very well, so well they nearly went wild over our bayonet drill. The bayonet drill is an improvement over the French and English style. The commandant of the Marine Corps, Major General Barnett and Secretary of the Navy Daniels were at the game. The Marines beat the Camp Lee conscripts 29 to 9.

Well I do not know whether we will be here Christmas or not; some of the boys are willing to bet two to one we will be on our road to France by that time. If we do not leave I shall come home then. We all do our own washing here. We might get it done at the laundry but they would want a fortune for doing it. We have plenty of hot water, however, here for doing this.

We have good quarters here and plenty of heat. Each building holds eighty men and there are two stoves for each building. I went up to the Y. M. C. A. last night to hear the Ninth Regiment band. They are all from Cleveland. The band of our regiment, the Sixth, is in France. They have been there for six weeks, so they write us. All Marines sent to France have landed safely. Well it is almost one o'clock, and that is the hour set by the M. D. to give a lecture on first aid, so I will close. Write soon.

RAYMOND PINKERTON.

LARGE RESIDENCE AT THE CEMETERY DAMAGED BY FIRE

Cemetery Superintendent's Residence Suffers $400 to $600 Damage by Fire, Which Starts from Furnace—Leaky Hydrant Handicaps Department.

The large frame residence in the Washington cemetery, property of the city and township, and occupied by Mr. Geo. Gossard, Superintendent of the cemetery was badly damaged by fire which was discovered by a passerby about five o'clock Tuesday evening. Mr. Gossard was absent when the fire was discovered.

When discovered the fire was breaking through the roof, and some little delay resulting before an alarm was turned in, the rear of the house was burning rapidly when the department reached the scene of the fire after making the mile run in splendid time.

A line of hose was laid from the hydrant near the cemetery gate, but when the water was turned on the hydrant proved defective and more water poured from the hydrant jacket that could be thrown on the fire. A second line of hose was laid to the hydrant further upward town, but the first stream was so well directed that the fire was soon under control and completely extinguished a short time later.

The fire had evidently started from the furnace, and at a register located in the living room. The fire spread to the dining room and the floor was burned so that it fell in. The main room was badly damaged, and the kitchen also suffered heavily. The roof was burned from much of the rear portion of the house, but the fire was kept from the main part of the house.

After igniting at the floor the fire spread up between the weather boarding and plastering, and caught in the roof.

The damage to the residence will probably be $400 to $600 and the loss to household furnishings will be considerably less than the loss to the residence.

Work of repairing the damage will be taken up as speedily as possible. The fire and the condition of the fire hydrant brought to light the fact that the hydrants have not been tested for many months. According to Mayor Oster the Water Company agreed to test the hydrants at frequent intervals providing the city discontinued the work, and that not a single test has been made since that time.

OLD DAMAGE CASE IN COMMON PLEAS DRAWS ATTENTION

An old case which has been pending in the common pleas court since January, 1910, is now being tried in the common pleas court for the second time, and Judge Franklin Clevenger, of Wilmington, is presiding.

The action is that of Alvan A. Stuckey against Humphrey Jones, now deceased, and originally was for $25,000 damages for the loss of the plaintiff's left arm which was mangled in an ensilage cutter in operation on the defendant's farm east of this city. It was necessary to amputate the mangled arm above the wrist. Hidy and Sanderson are representing the defendant, and the plaintiff is represented by Logan and Junk.

When the case was tried once before the jury disagreed, and the action was set down for a new trial.

Quite a large number of witnesses have been called to give evidence in the case, the defendant having quite a number of the witnesses called.

The plaintiff claims that it was thru negligence and carelessness of the defendant to provide proper protection against the machinery in which his hand was caught, and the defense sets forth the claim that the accident was due to the carelessness of the plaintiff.

The case has been under way since Monday.

DESCENDANT "OLD PUT" IN U. S. MARINE CORPS

Young Putnam is a brother of Miss Susan Putnam, of the local corps of public school teachers.

Like "Old Put," he gave his services to his country as soon as he heard war was declared. He enlisted in Chicago.

900 MORE WILL SOON GO OVERSEA FROM OHIO CAMP

Chillicothe, Ohio, Dec. 4.—With word from Captain F. E. Frazier, commander of the 408th Supply train, that his 464 men were safe at a port of embarkation, division headquarters today began to prepare the 268th Ammunition train for overseas service. It is expected the men will be "on their way" by January 1.

The 408th moved from Camp Sherman Saturday afternoon, but news of the movement was suppressed pending word from Captain Frazier of the safe arrival.

The new unit preparing to move will be twice as large as the 408th. It will embrace 549 men in the horse section and 378 in the motor section, a total of 927.

Lieutenant Colonel George Holden moved the nucleus of the command into the quarters vacated by the 408th today, and transfers by the wholesale commenced. In a few hours the original strength of the 200 had been augmented to 343. Farm boys familiar with horses, mechanics, cooks, buglers, horseshoers and chauffeurs are being picked from the drafted men.

FLAG SERVICE HONORS MRS. E. C. HAMILTON

The Ladies Circle of the G. A. R. conducted a beautiful flag service over all that was mortal of a valued former member, Mrs. E. C. Hamilton, Wednesday morning at half past ten o'clock.

The service was held at the McCoy undertaking parlors, where were gathered with the family a large number of comrades of the late Dr. Hamilton in the B. H. Millikan Post, Ladies of the G. A. R., and friends.

Mrs. Mary Millikan, president, Mrs. H. V. Rodgers, chaplain, were in charge of the services. Mrs. J. F. Dennis, treasurer, offered an appreciative little tribute to Mrs. Hamilton, speaking of her efficient help in the work of the Circle and her always ready assistance with the music.

On behalf of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Mrs. Dennis placed a handsome floral wreath over the quiet sleeper.

BIRTH OF A NATION TICKET SALE GOOD

The reserved seat ticket sale for "The Birth of a Nation," the great military spectacle which had had record breaking runs in all of the big cities, and which will be shown in this city Saturday morning, afternoon and night, opened at the Wonderland Theater Wednesday morning, and the demand for seats has been heavy.

The plat for both afternoon and night performances will be kept open until the respective shows.

That the famous pictures will be accorded a heavy patronage while in this city is clearly indicated by the early advance sales of tickets.

ATTACK LAUNCHED

(Associated Press Cable) Rome, December 5.—Enemy forces have begun an attack on the Italian line on the Asiago plateau, the war office announced today. The only gains achieved in the attack were some positions the loss of which has not impaired the Italian defense line.

OHIO NEWS

Columbus, Dec. 5.—The total expense of the draft in Ohio from early in June to Dec. 1 was $280,045, according to a report made to Washington by Adjutant General Wood. Of this amount $80,742 was for compensation for members of local boards. The other chief item of expense was an outlay of $74,775 for clerk hire by local boards.

Election Changes Sought. Cleveland, Dec. 5.—Cleveland city council is studying proposed legislation authorizing the submission to voters of two amendments to the city charter for changes in the conduct of municipal elections. One would abolish the preferential system of voting and the other would advance the date of the biennial municipal election from November to October.

New Automobile Tags. Columbus, Dec. 5.—Arrangements have been made by Secretary of State Fulton for the distribution of 1918 auto tags from a number of the large cities of the state. Distribution will be made through the automobile clubs of the cities. Columbus will be the main point of distribution, as usual. The other principal places of distribution will be Cincinnati, Cleveland and Toledo. More than 300,000 sets for 1918 have been contracted for.

AUTO HITS WAGON ON MAIN STREET

FUNERAL SERVICES OF GEORGE OLLINGER

Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington conducted simple, but impressive services over all that was mortal of Mr. George Ollinger, Wednesday morning.

Miss Daisy Cockerill and Miss Lulu Larrimer sang beautifully, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "I Know He's Mine."

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. O. C. Minton, Homer Harper, Harley Harper, Roy Hooker, William Haggard and Charles Crute.

A long line of autos accompanied the family to the Bloomingburg cemetery.

CREAMERY BUTTER PRICE BOOSTED BY FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

According to information obtained from local grocers, Wednesday afternoon, it seems that the price of creamery butter has been "regulated" upwards several cents on the pound by the Food Administrator, and Washington citizens who were paying 50c per pound for creamery butter today were facing an advance of 3 per cent prospect of a further increase to 55c by the end of this week.

Owing to the fact that the price has been regulated upward, the affair is causing some discussion, although it is claimed that the increase in price is due entirely to supply and demand.

Butterine or Oleo, which a great many people are using is selling at 35c per pound.

FUNERAL SERVICES J. P. LEAVELL

Funeral services of J. P. Leavell will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence in Bloomingburg. Interment in Bloomingburg cemetery.

WHAT'S DOING AT BIG CAMP AT CHILLICOTHE

Rough Riding a Feature of Training Horses. Jews to Celebrate. Soldiers Realize Work Ahead of Them.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Dec. 5.—There will be circus riders aplenty after the war is over, if army men from the three artillery regiments in training here are not provided with saddles. There are plenty of horses, but not equipment for them. However, the horses must be exercised daily.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have
Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

LT. FRANK B. LOGAN AT CAMP SHERMAN

Frank B. Logan, First Lieutenant of Infantry, O. R. C., has just returned from the Officer's Training Camp at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, after a three months intensive training there. He was also engaged in giving his Crayon Lectures at the Army Y. M. C. A. while in camp, and his work became very popular with both officers and men. Lieut. Logan has been assigned to Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, and is ordered to report December 15.—The Waverly Watchman.

OPERATIONS IN 1919 WILL COST A BILLION

(By American Press)
Washington, Dec. 2.—Engineer operations, including the equipment of the corps and railroad and other construction for the expeditionary force in France, will cost nearly $1,000,000,000 in 1919.

The exact estimate, made public in the annual report of Major General William Black, chief of engineers, is $892,000,000, and is based on providing for the engineer operations of 1,500,000 men. Equipment of the engineers with the regular necessary appliances is estimated at $185,000,000. For this work this year congress appropriated $1,174,000, but a deficiency of $12,100,000 was incurred in outfitting the 10 special railway regiments alone. One of these regiments helped stem the German assaults on the British front at Cambrai this week.

Congress provided $94,500,000 for engineer operations this year, but deficiency items totaling $185,000,000 have been submitted. The report says "for construction work to be accomplished by the force in France."

The report shows that equipment for 79 divisions, or approximately 1,000,000 men, was purchased within 250 hours after the declaration of war, including $700,000 articles, among them four miles of pontoon bridges. Every unit sent to France took its full engineer equipment with it.

Another statement that will be of interest is that the entire Expeditionary forces are well fed and clothed.

TERRIBLE PRICE PAID BY GERMANS IN CAMBRAI ATTACK

(By American Press)
London, Dec. 5.—Artillery only is now engaged in the Cambrai sector, following four days of onslaughts that equaled any previously witnessed during the war.

Although the Germans claim the capture of more than 6,000 British prisoners in the attacks and also more than 100 guns, reports from the scene of battle, both from the British war office and from correspondents have indicated that the German loss in men killed, wounded or made prisoner was a terrible price to pay for the very small recovery of lost terrain.

While it is expected that further attacks will be delivered on the Cambrai sector, which is a salient vitally menacing to the important railroad junction of Cambrai, with its highways and railroads radiating in all directions as feeders to the German lines north and south, the British troops are declared now to be in a better position to offer stronger resistance to their efforts than heretofore.

Berlin announced that when the village of La Vaucquerie was stormed and captured 500 prisoners were taken.

As yet the anticipated renewal by the Austro-Germans of their infantry attacks on a large scale against the Italians on the Venetian front has not materialized. The enemy artillery, however, continues active from the Asago plateau eastward toward the headwaters of the Piave river.

On the Trentino front, where there has been no fighting for some time, the enemy has essayed an attack which was prepared for by a heavy bombardment, but it met with repulse. Along the Piave valley the Italians again have dispersed Austrian bodies concentrating for attacks.

Likewise in Palestine the battle between the Turks and the British for the possession of Jerusalem has not begun. There is no change in the situation in the region, although General Allenby's forces have carried out small offensives in the nature of raids and killed or captured the occupants of Turkish trenches.

British casualties reported in the week ending Tuesday total 28,822, as follows: Killed or died of wounds, officers 169, men 6,153; wounded or missing, officers 494, men 22,066.

CANADIAN YARDS BUILDING TONNAGE

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London, Nov. 20.—It is announced here that Great Britain has placed orders in Canada for twenty-two steel vessels of 3,400 to 8,000 tons, the total tonnage now under consideration being 150,000. The vessels are to be launched "this year or early in 1918." Orders for wooden ships to the value of $10,000,000 are also under consideration.

MEATLESS DAYS HELD NECESSARY

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Abolition of wheatless and meatless days was recommended to the food administration by representatives of state live stock associations in the middle west who met here with Joseph P. Cotton, meat administrator. Members of the associations agreed with Arthur Meeker of Armour & Company that the abstinence from eating wheat and meat packers on specific days was an unnecessary sacrifice. Mr. Meeker declared that shortage now exists only in the supply of pork.

1600 PUT ON BLACKLISTS BY WARBOARD

(By American Press)

Washington, Dec. 5.—A blacklist of 1,600 firms in 30 Central and South American countries with whom merchants of the United States are forbidden specifically to do business with except under special license, has been promulgated by the war trade board. It is officially styled enemy trading list and constitutes the first section of a record which eventually will include the names of firms in most of the countries of the world, including the United States itself.

Latin-America is dealt with first because of the large number of German firms in the southern republics active in aiding Germany's cause. Evidence put before the war trade board has shown that many of these firms, including public utilities companies, have financed to a large degree German propaganda work in the United States. All those named in the list have been charged with secretly or openly assisting America's enemies.

The action is taken under authority conferred on the president by the trading with the enemy act, and is designed solely for the guidance of American concerns to enable them to observe the provisions of the law. The act forbids not only trading, except under such special license with an enemy or an ally of an enemy, but prohibits commerce as well with a person conducting trade on behalf of or for the benefit of an enemy.

LITTLE CHANGE HERE IN AUSTRIAN AFFAIRS BY WAR DECLARATION

(By American Press)

Washington, Dec. 5.—Declaration of war on Austria merely transmutates into official action and international legal record a condition in which the United States has found itself since it went to war with Germany.

It changes the status of Austro-Hungarian affairs in the United States very little, other than to include all subjects of the dual empire in the list of enemy aliens. Austria-Hungary has had no diplomatic or consular relations with the United States since they were broken off at the time of the diplomatic breach with Germany.

Austrian investments in the United States will be conserved in the same way German property is being cared for through the alien property custodian. American use of Austrian war-bound ships is legalized by the declaration of war, although some of them have been used heretofore and the necessity for their use will be paid for later.

There have been no such number of depredations on American lives and rights by Austrian military forces as has been the case with Germany, but Austria, as the willing or unwilling ally of Germany, has gradually come into a position where officials of the American government realize more and more clearly that she must be included with Germany as an enemy. This was apparent even before the Teutonic invasion of Italy made the Austro-Italian front literally a part of the western front on which American forces are operating. There has been no outstanding "overt act" on the part of Austria against the United States; there have been rather a series of acts, including attacks on American ships, short of being classed as causes for war. They go back to the beginning of the European war.

AN APPEAL TO WOMEN'S CLUBS OF THE STATE

The following appeal has been received here by women club leaders. It speaks for itself:

To Women's Organizations of Ohio: The United States Government has always been able to rely upon the women of the nation. In the conservation of food, the help of the women is going to be the most important factor. We are, accordingly, appealing to the Women's Clubs of Ohio to follow up the work of the Food Pledge Campaign along certain definite lines.

In order to save the amount of wheat and meat necessary for immediate exportation, it is imperative that food be saved in the homes. Will you use all your influence to see that the families of Ohio observe the following program:

- 1.—Make Tuesday a meatless day.
 - 2.—Use less pork products at all times.
 - 3.—Make every evening meal wheatless.
 - 4.—Use less white flour at all times.
- In doing what you can to see that these suggestions are carried out, you will be performing a patriotic service. With the saving of food in the homes, our armies and our allies can be fed, and the lives of our sons may be spared. Without the cooperation of the homes, the war may drag on indefinitely. May we not depend upon your enthusiastic cooperation?

Very truly yours,
Fred C. Croxton,
Federal Food Administrator for Ohio.

MADGE EVANS
"The Little Duchess"
Story by JULIA ROBERTSON
Directed by HARLEY BOWLES

When little Jerry Carmichael ran away from the orphanage and joined Jim Snyder's circus, she had visions of having a splendid time. But she found circus life to be altogether different from what she had hoped for. Her life in Snyder's circus was hard and unhappy and at last it came to the point where only the big bulk of the circus giant saved her from a beating at Snyder's hands.

Jerry's life in the circus is but an incident in the eventful career of the young lady. You can see all the interesting and thrilling things that happen to her in "The Little Duchess," the new World-Picture Brady-Made.
